

28. (New) The method of claim 26 further comprising outputting a defect list of detected defective pixels. → classification of the defects

29. (New) The method of claim 26 wherein said detecting step comprises detecting the intensity of light at a plurality of locations disposed about the illuminated portion of the surface.

---